Introduction

This Learning Object (LO) of content combines practice and assessment items. This learning is characterized by the reusability of its resources and activities to improve the communicative skills related to general vocabulary. It provides different topics from personal information to description of free time activities, all the way to use it in an appropriate way.

The communicative skill is very important in the learning and teaching English process, due to the need to communicate with others, that’s why the learning process will develop your skills through different activities that you can do in both, teams or individual work.

You will find 3 main topics: About you; Relationships; Activities and Interests. Each topic has an introduction, general objectives, resources and activities that are align to check your progress. At the end of the units, you will find an assessment to evaluate all the topics learned.

Key words: learning process, skills, resources

“Start where you are. Use what you have. Do what you can”. – Arthur Ashe
This Learning Object (LO) is divided in three units, the units are organized with an introduction which explains what you will find, the main aim establishes the principal objective the students need to reach. The resources used are presented by videos, audios, flashcards, images. Finally, you can find different activities such as, listening, reading, writing to practice what you have learned during the lessons.

General Objectives:
- Identify and put into practice, using the communicative skills the topics and vocabulary presented during the LO in a level A2.
- Communicate in simple, everyday tasks requiring no more than a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters.

Specific Objectives:
At the end of this LO you will be able to do listening, reading and writing exercises.

Able to:
1. Communicate in everyday situations with commonly-used expressions and elementary vocabulary.
2. Review country vocabulary and introduce new vocabulary about nationalities in the context of talking about where people are from.
3. Describe places using appropriate vocabulary and phrases.
4. Describe your families by sharing relevant details and facts.
5. Practice the vocabulary related to jobs and occupations through the four skills: Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing.
6. Describe people’s personalities using short and simple statements.
7. Review vocabulary for holiday activities to encourage students to get to know each other.
8. Identify sports vocabulary in order to talk about what you usually do in your free time.
9. Demonstrate your knowledge of vocabulary and characteristic of different TV programs.

Level A2

The Autonoma University of Manizales is aligned with The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, Assessment (CEFRL) for languages, therefore our teaching practice is focused on different levels of communicative such as, A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2. In this specific Learning Object, level A2 corresponds to basic users. In general, the users of this A2 can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment).

The level A2 is also characterized for the following communicative skills:
Hello! My name is Susana Pérez. I am a professor at Autonoma University of Manizales. I grew up in Manizales, Caldas, it’s a beautiful city with a great
I studied Modern Languages at Caldas University. Then, I studied a specialization in Management Education at Catolica University. Currently, I am studying a Master of Pedagogy at Catolica University. I have worked as a teacher with different ages. I began my teaching career with the police officers. I taught English and French for three years before moving to the school where I taught science and English. Then, I began to work at UAM and I have been a professor since 2015.

I enjoy cooking, reading, watching movies, and spending time with my family.

Acknowledgments

I would like to thank all the people who made it possible to design this Learning Object (LO): Oscar Andrés Calvache Dulce, the coordinator of the Language Institute of Autonoma University of Manizales and my co-workers, for their kind support and help with the review, and execution of material and audio clips in the development of this LO. They accompanied me during the whole process and made it possible as they had a clue role in its design.

On the other hand, I want to thank Maria del Pilar Prado, coordinator of UAM virtual, Viviana Gómez Barco and Diego Fernando Aguirre Alfonso for their review and all recommendations given in order to publish the final LO.